Hong Kong - A rich blend of East & West, of modern and traditional, of Capitalism and Confucianism. A thriving metropolis packed into a tiny space, its flashy facade of high-rises and neon collide with a Chinese world of colourful street markets, wizened calligraphers, timeworn temples and romantic junks. Shopping in Hong Kong is legendary.

The streets are crowded with shops offering treasures and temptations of every kind. From silks and suits to jewellery, cameras, electronics and all at wonderful prices!

Shenzhen was one of the first cities to open its door to the outside world and a fast developing metropolis. Shenzhen has a good selection of department stores and shopping centers, where everything from basis commodities to high quality brands can be found. This is an ideal city for those who are addicted to shopping! Electrical appliances, fashionable and reasonable clothing, jewelry and seafood are some of the best choices to buy in Shenzhen.
